GCE N-Level Results

Administrative Briefing

Dear students,

As we gather here today, let us all celebrate our efforts!

Think about your opportunities

You may be:

- You are happy that your results meet your expectations;
- You are overjoyed that your results exceed your expectations, or;
- You are worried/upset because your results fall short of your expectations.

As there are many pathways and opportunities, remember that everyone's learning journey is different and we can each have a fulfilling outcome!

No matter the circumstances, there is always a way forward.

Stop

- Calm yourself down. Take a few deep breaths.

Think

- Think through the different options that are available for you. Keep things in perspective.
- Remember that the N-Level is one part of your life journey and not the destination.

Do

- Approach a trusted adult and seek his/her help. Have a conversation with this person about what would be best for you.
- Make a decision and take action based on your options.

When you receive your results, you may experience a range of emotions.

Managing these emotions well will allow you to stay calm and make rational decisions.

Keep a lookout for some of these signs in your peers or yourself.

How can we support one another?

- D Deliberately avoiding others
- I Increased irritability, restlessness, agitation, stress and anxiety
- S Sending or posting moody messages on social media
- T Talking about death or dying
- R Reacting differently or gradually losing interest in things they used to like
- E Eating more than usual or having a much reduced appetite
- S Sleep pattern changes with difficulty falling asleep or oversleeping
- S Slowing down of energy levels

Supporting Your Friend

We may each experience different emotions upon receiving the results. You can share your friends' joy by congratulating them or give words of encouragement to friends who may be disappointed with their results.

Keep a lookout for your friends in distress. You can support them in the following ways:

A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a silver smartphone. The screen displays a messaging application interface. At the top, a blue header bar reads "How can I support my friend?" with a timestamp of "2.43 am". Below the header, there are five messages, each preceded by a large, bold, colored letter icon (C, H, E, E, R) and a small timestamp indicating when the message was sent. The messages are: "Calm them down" (7m), "Hear them out" (51m), "Empathise with them" (1h), "Encourage seeking help" (1h), and "Refer to a trusted adult" (2h). Each message also includes a brief explanatory sentence and several small, light-gray interactive icons at the bottom of the message card.

Reaching out for help is a sign of strength, not weakness.
